

Remuneration Policy

Introduction

The objective of the Remuneration Policy is to support business strategy which is more long term and strategic in nature.

The Company recognises fair and transparent remuneration is critical to attract, retain and motivate Directors and Senior Management. The remuneration package should take into account the complexity of the Company's business and the individual's responsibilities. The remuneration should also be aligned with the business strategy and long term objectives of the Company.

The responsibilities of the Directors are as set out in the Board Charter of the Company.

Remuneration of Directors and Senior Management

The level and composition of remuneration of Non-Executive Directors take into account the demands, the Company's needs to attract and retain appropriately experienced and qualified Board members in accordance with their skills, roles and responsibilities and competitive pressures of the marketplace, as well as the market trends, complexities and performance of the Company.

The level and composition of remuneration of Executive Directors and Senior Management take into account the demands, the Company's needs to attract and retain experienced and caliber Executive Board members and Senior Management based on their skills, duties, roles and responsibilities, performances, competitive pressures of the marketplace and comparison of remuneration packages of other listed companies, as well as the market trends, complexities and performance of the Company.

In determining the remuneration of Directors, the Remuneration Committee and Board is guided by the provisions of the Company's Constitution and other applicable laws and requirements, where applicable.

Review of Directors' and Senior Management's Remuneration

The Remuneration Committee may from time to time seek independent advice on remuneration of Directors and Senior Management, if necessary, with the latest development and up to date information, before making recommendations to the Board in relation to any change to their remuneration.

The Remuneration Committee reviews and recommends to the Board the remuneration of the Executive Directors, while the remuneration packages of Non-Executive Directors is a matter for the Board as a whole.

Respective Directors shall abstain from deliberation and voting in respect of their remuneration.

Disclosure

The Board will make appropriate disclosure in its annual report of the remuneration of Directors in accordance with the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad.

There is detailed disclosure on named basis for the remuneration of individual Directors. The remuneration breakdown of individual directors includes fees, salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments. The Board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration in bands of RM50,000.

Review of Policy

This Policy will be reviewed periodically, as and when appropriate, to reflect the current best practices.

The Remuneration Committee will discuss any revisions that may be required and recommend any such revisions to the Board for approval.

This Policy is revised and adopted by the Board on 21 February 2022.