Practice 8.5

Collectively, the Audit Committee should possess a wide range of necessary skills to discharge its duties. All members should be financially literate and are able to understand matters under the purview of the Audit Committee including the financial reporting process. All members of the Audit Committee should undertake continuous professional development to keep themselves abreast of relevant developments in accounting and auditing standards, practices and rules.

Application	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The members of the Audit Committee comprised at least one member with the requisite accounting qualification based on the MMLR. Members of the Committee are financial literate. They continuously keep themselves abreast with the latest development in the new accounting and auditing standards and the impact it may have on the Group through briefings by the management and the external auditors. There was a private session held on 20 February 2019 with the external auditors without the presence of management to discuss on issues and significant matters that the external auditors wished to raise. The external and internal auditors also met on 24 February 2020 to discuss on issues pertaining to the principal risks, follow-up actions taken by the management and also scopes/areas of audit to be covered by both parties. The Company Secretaries act as Secretaries of the Committee. Minutes of each meeting are kept and circulated to each Board member. The Chairman of the Committee reports on principal matters deliberated at each meeting to the Board. Among the duties and responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:- 1. Financial Reporting (a) To review the quarterly results and year-end financial statements of the Company and Group, and to recommend the same to the Board for approval, focusing particularly on the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• any changes in accounting policies and practices;• significant adjustments arising from the audit;• the going concern assumption;• significant and unusual events;• compliance with accounting standards, Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and other legal-requirements; and• announcements of financial results to Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and dividend payments. (b) To obtain explanations from management for unusual variances in the Company's annual financial statements from year to year, and review annually the independent auditors' letter of the recommendations to management and management's response. (c) To review with the external and internal auditors whether the employees of the Group have given appropriate assistance in discharging their duties. (d) To review any related party transaction and conflict of interest situation that may arise within the Company or the Group, including any transaction, procedure or course of conduct that raises questions of management integrity. (e) To consider and examine such other matters as the Board consider appropriate and beneficial.

Intended Outcome

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 9.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Board of Directors is committed to maintaining a sound system of internal control to safeguard shareholders' investment and the Group's assets and to review its adequacy and integrity. The system of internal control covers not only financial matters but also operational, compliance and risk management. The Board also recognises that a sound system of internal control can only reduce but not eliminate the possibility of poor judgment in decision making, human error, control process being deliberately circumvented by employees, management overriding controls and the occurrence of unforeseeable circumstances. Accordingly, the system could provide only reasonable but not absolute assurance against material misstatement, operational failures, fraud or loss. The Audit Committee of the Group perform regular risk management assessments and through the Internal Audit Department, review the internal control processes, and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the risk management and internal control system. The Committee also seeks the observations of the independent external auditors of the Group. The Risk Management Committee is also established to assist the Board in discharge of its statutory and fiduciary responsibilities by identifying significant risks and ensuring that the Group Risk Management Framework includes the necessary policies and mechanism to manage the overall risk exposures of the Group. For detailed information, please refer to the Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control in the Annual Report of the Company.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 9.2

The board should disclose the features of its risk management and internal control framework, and the adequacy and effectiveness of this framework.

Application	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Company has established a separate stand-alone Risk Management Committee effective January 2020 (the Committee was previously known as Audit and Risk Management Committee). The primary objective of the Risk Management Committee is to assist the Board in the discharge of its statutory and fiduciary responsibilities by identifying significant risks and ensuring that the Group Risk Management Framework includes the necessary policies and mechanism to manage the overall risk exposures of the Group. The Risk Management Committee comprises Non-Executive members of the Board. Risk Management Framework and Internal Controls The Board with the assistance of the Risk Management Committee and management undertook to identify the principal business risks in the critical areas of the Group, assessing the likelihood of material exposures and identifying the measures taken and the time frame to mitigate and minimise these risks. This was done through desktop reviews, interviews with the management and thorough deliberation and discussion among the Directors in the Board meetings. The top six (6) business risks that were rated as High or Significant are as follows:- <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Over-dependence on foreign workers;(2) Fluctuation of crude palm oil prices;(3) Sustainability issues - Negative campaign about oil palm development;(4) Palm disease - Ganoderma; and(5) Increase in price of inputs.(6) COVID-19 Pandemic Threat After the review and taking into consideration the nature of the Group's business, the Directors are of the view that the Group is not materially exposed to legal and environmental risks and therefore have concluded to focus on the operational risks relevant to the business. Although there is exposure to market risk as a result of price fluctuations in the commodity market, the Directors consider these as movement in market forces inherent in the industry in which the Group operates. The Internal Audit Function reviews the operational procedures and processes to ensure the effectiveness and integrity of the Group's internal control system.

Practice 10.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Group has established an Internal Audit Department to assist the Audit Committee in the discharge of its duties and responsibilities. Its role is to provide independent and objective reports on the organisation's management, records, accounting policies and controls to the Board. The Internal Audit function includes evaluation of the processes by which significant risks are identified, assessed and managed. Such audits are carried out to ensure instituted controls are appropriate, effectively applied and within acceptable risk exposures consistent with the Group's risk management policy. The Internal Audit Department reports directly to the Audit Committee and its findings and recommendations are communicated to the Board.

Stakeholders are able to make informed decisions with respect to the business of the company, its policies on governance, the environment and social responsibility.

Practice 11.1

The board ensures there is effective, transparent and regular communication with its stakeholders.

Application	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Annual General Meeting ("AGM") is the principal forum for dialogue with individual shareholders and investors. It is a crucial mechanism in shareholder communication for the Company. At the Company's AGM, which is generally well attended, shareholders have direct access to the Board and are given the opportunities to ask questions during open question and answer session prior to the motion moving for approval of the Company's Audited Statements and Directors' Report for the financial year. The shareholders are encouraged to ask questions both about the resolutions being proposed or about the Group's operations in general. Where it is not possible to provide the questions with immediate answer to a significant question, the Chairman will undertake to provide him/her with a written answer after the AGM. The Company's e-mail address fareast@fareh.po.my is one of the means to communicate with the Company. The Board has appointed Encik Nik Mohamed Zaki Bin Nik Yusoff as Senior Independent Non-Executive Director as a Director responsible for Investor Relationship. Any queries with regard to the Group may be communicated to him. His e-mail address is nikmohamedzaki@fareh.po.my.
