ADDITIONAL SKILLS

Final Year Integrated Design Project

- Design of microstrip patch antenna by applying fractal and partial ground technique for miniaturize the size and bandwidth enhancement. This antenna was designed for radar application in communication field by using the CST studio software .The antenna will analysed with comparing the result between conventional antenna and fractal antenna. The objective of this project is to implement the antenna by reducing the size more than 10 % and get the wideband of bandwidth due to improve the performance of antennas.

CO-/EXTRA- CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Head of Organizing Annual Grand Meeting for an Association of Faculty Electrical Engineering.
- Secretary of Programs Team Building organized by an Association of Faculty Electrical Engineering.
- Treasurer of Programs Mentor VHDL organized by an Association of Faculty Electrical Engineering.
