Dear Sir/Madam

My name is Mohamad Afiq Bin Ani. Now i has been terminated by previous company because the management company was re-structuring. In the previous company, i am work as Site Engineer in Telcommunication Department at Mufleh Integrated Sdn Bhd. In this company, I work for site survey and handle contractor to installation antenna project at northern region. Before this, i am also work as Site Engineer in same previous department at Innerspace Industry Sdn Bhd but different scope work. Now, i am now looking forward to apply my skills and knowledge with your company for a permanent and stable position.

I eagerly want to work for your company because I know I can provide best service in engineering field or other related field and fit well in your organization. I also believe that I am capable to perform well based on my academic qualification and experience. I hope you will agree that the combinations of my qualification for this Engineer position are a perfect fit.

I possess excellent communication skills which I firmly believe to be most valuable attribute in any engineer position. Not to mention, I possess the qualifications you would want and expect for an employee that would perform in an Engineer position successfully, I also possess another powerful intangible quality. This is truly my strong suit. I am eager to show that my intelligent, competence, maturity, and enthusiasm will be a positive contribution to your company.

I would love the opportunity to be interviewed in person for the position of Engineer or any related position. My expected salary is RM 2500 and above that suitable with my qualification and job task. Thank you for your time and I look forward to hear from you.

Best regards,

(Mohamad Afiq Bin Ani)
